Disjoint universality connected with differential operators

Vagia Vlachou

December 4, 2023

Abstract

For a simply connected domain G, we study the problem of disjoint universality for series of operators connected with differential operators and polynomials. The motivation for this study stems from Universal Taylor Series, if you change the role of the centre of expansion to variable instead of constant.